

VIOLIN MASTER CLASS WITH ELISABETH ADKINS

WHERE: THE KENNEDY CENTER

WHEN: SAT, NOVEMBER 19, 11:00 A.M.

Associate Concertmaster of the National Symphony Orchestra Elisabeth Adkins began her study of the violin at age four. Today, a highly regarded and demanded soloist, orchestral and chamber musician, and teacher, Ms. Adkins has established her outstanding artistry and expertise throughout the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area and all over the nation. Join us for this intimate master class in which she shares her knowledge of violin technique, musicality, and the violin repertoire with pre-selected violin students.

Open to everyone! (Especially student violinists of all ages.)
Fee: $5 per person

Tickets available by phone:
202.416.8835

